STUDENT ENVIRONMENTAL VIDEO COMPETITION
DENIN STUDENT PROGRAMS COMMITTEE

The DENIN Student Programs Committee is pleased to announce its second annual environmental video competition. The theme of this year's competition is

“Dare To Be Green!”

Individuals or teams of up to five students—graduate or undergraduate—are invited to submit digital videos up to 10 minutes long in .mov format by 5:00 p.m. on Feb. 12, 2014.

A panel of judges will select three to five finalists to be screened as part of UD's first “Lights, Camera, EARTH!” environmental film festival, Feb. 21-23, where the winners will be announced.

A $1,000 grand prize will be awarded for the top video, as well as a $500 runner-up prize. Videos will be judged based on the following criteria:

- Creativity • Originality • Depiction of theme
- Cinematography and production values
- Effectiveness of environmental message (did the video inspire us?)

Videos and accompanying entry forms should be submitted via UD Dropbox by the deadline on Feb. 12. For complete rules and entry form see
